

Unit A5 Goals

- Analyze/discuss attachment interviews
– Exercise A4
- Discuss aspects of family values
- Preview Module A Evaluation Workshop
- Understand what to do with Exercise A5

FSP111 A5

1

Exercise A4

- Findings? [what you didn't know but you now know]
learning ~ change
- Possibility of applying your findings to multiple problems?
i.e., generality
- What you still don't know
cost? ⇒ research

FSP111 A5

2

Family Values

- Individual members
value vs. values
- Structure
- Interaction
- Sharing
- Caring
- Connection to the society

FSP111 A5

3

Complex Systems

Preview

- Family, Mind, and Society
- The whole is greater than the sum of the components.
- The components self-organize through interaction.
- The outcome depends on the initial conditions, and is often unpredictable.

Principles underlying every complex system including mind and society

FSP111 A5

4

Evaluation Form

- Performance Goal 1
– Identify your main personal and/or social problem related to the content goals and propose a well-thought solution developed in stages, reflecting critical reviews of other students and the instructor.

FSP111 A5

5

Module A Evaluation Workshop

Preview

- Required materials (hardcopy) print in advance
 - Module A evaluation form
 - Supporting notes
 - Exercises, Module A paper (final draft), etc.
- Activities
 - Module review exercise
 - Peer discussion
 - Reflection and self-evaluation

FSP111 A5

6

Unit Summary

- Family values ~ attachment
- Complex systems preview
- Evaluation: P1
- Evaluation workshop preview
- Summary question
 - Can you connect “attachment” to your problem(s)? How or why not?